

NEW ZEALAND PARACHUTE INDUSTRY ASSOCIATION

High altitude exam

■

1. Between what altitudes is a parachute descent described as high altitude?
2. What is the minimum requirement for oxygen equipment under the NZPIA Operating Procedures?
3. As altitude increases, air pressure drops, temperature decreases approximately by how many degrees Celsius per 1000ft?
4. How would you Valsalva?
5. At altitude gasses can be trapped in which four body spaces?
6. You should not skydive if you have?
7. Hypoxia is caused by?
8. Symptoms of hypoxia may include?
9. Treatment of hypoxia should be?
10. The time of useful consciousness at 18000ft AMSL is?
11. A person is suffering from oxygen paradox, you should?
12. Hyperventilation can be caused by?