

TANDEM INSTRUCTOR/EXAMINER RATING ONLINE EXAM SAMPLE QUESTIONS

1. A tandem master's pre-jump checks of their equipment, and their passenger's equipment, must include what?
2. According to NZPIA requirements, how many tandem jumps must a tandem master have completed before doing a tandem display jump?
3. According to NZPIA requirements, how many tandem jumps must a tandem master have completed before wearing a camera on a tandem jump? What else does the NZPIA require a tandem master to have prior to wearing a camera on tandem jumps?
4. According to NZPIA, who must complete a high altitude training course?
5. According to the Sigma and Strong tandem equipment instructions, the minimum briefing a tandem passenger should receive prior to doing a tandem jump includes what?
6. According to the tandem manufacturer's instructions (Sigma and Strong), by what altitude should emergency procedures be initiated?
7. An NZPIA Tandem I/E's signature (or electronic equivalent) on a logbook entry, exam, or training or assessment record is certifying what?
8. As a Tandem Instructor/Examiner, what training and assessments does the NZPIA allow you to conduct for ground crew members?
9. As a Tandem Instructor/Examiner, what training and assessments does the NZPIA allow you to conduct for Tandem Masters?
10. If an NZPIA tandem master does not meet the NZPIA's currency requirements for tandem masters, but was current within the previous six months, what must he/she do?
11. If an NZPIA tandem master has done no tandem jumps in the last year, what must he/she do?
12. If you are asked by an operator to carry out training for a ground crew member, where would you find details of the ground crew training program?
13. Is canopy relative work permitted during commercial tandem descents?
14. Making errors is frequently part of learning a new skill. Minimising errors so that they are not repeated relies on what?
15. The annual Tandem Master competency check required by CAR 115.353(4) must consist of what tasks?
16. The NZPIA's minimum main activation altitude for tandem descents is - ?
17. The person who administers the annual competency check required by CAR 115.353(4) must do what?
18. Transition training must address what elements?

19. To cross credit a non-NZPIA tandem rating, what experience does the candidate need to have?
20. To cross credit a non-NZPIA tandem rating, you must assess the candidate's competency in what areas?
21. Under CAR Part 115, who is authorised to administer annual proficiency checks for tandem masters?
22. Under what circumstances might a parachutist's certificate or rating be revoked?
23. What aspects of the operation must be covered by the Operator's training program?
24. What factors should be taken into consideration when doing any training or assessment?
25. What factors should be taken into consideration when doing re-currency training or assessment?
26. What reference material must all NZPIA tandem master assessments be in accordance with?
27. What sorts of training and assessment must be documented in a tandem master's logbook or training record?
28. What three types of training must be included in the training program required under CAR 115.303(a)?
29. When assessing a student's knowledge of a subject, what is most important?
30. When does CAR 115.307 require transition training?
31. When must oxygen be used by parachutists in an unpressurised aircraft?
32. Where are the currency requirements for NZPIA tandem masters written?
33. Where can safety and training procedures for tandem descents near water be found?
34. Who is permitted to pack tandem main parachutes?
35. Who must be included in the training program required by CAR 115.301(a)?